Our Traditional Funeral Service price includes

- Conveyance of deceased into our care within a 15 mile radius. For distances further than this a surcharge normally applies
  - Preparation and care of your loved one in private and modern hygienic facilities
  - Care, support, and guidance before, during, and after the funeral
  - Our full professional service that includes 24hr a day availability to carry out our client's instructions in a caring and dignified manner
  - We will discuss with you, and complete on your behalf, all the necessary arrangements and documentation. This can be carried out in the comfort of your own home, over the phone, or at our premises in Bude or Launceston over a cup of tea or coffee. Evening or weekend arrangements can be made with you in advance, at no extra cost
  - We will take instruction from you and liaise with all the required third parties on your behalf.
  - Full written confirmation of arrangements and breakdown of costs will be provided to you for agreement prior to the funeral
  - Supply of a standard Oak Veneered Coffin suitable for burial or cremation. Alternative coffins are available, a surcharge normally applies
  - Use of our Chapel of Rest facilities to view your loved one. Evening or weekend arrangements can be made with you in advance, at no extra cost
  - Provision of our 'modern classic' Jaguar Hearse. A surcharge normally applies to non-local Churches and Crematoria
  - Online obituary with Funeral Guide via our website, and social media if requested
  - Taking care of and forwarding charitable donations to your chosen charity that we may receive on your behalf. Charitable donations may also be made via the Obituary page on our website in partnership with Just Giving
  - Conveyance of Cremated Remains from local Crematoria back into our care. Once you have advised us of your wishes, we can convey them to your home address locally, or you may wish to collect them yourself from our premises in Bude or Launceston
  - Free access to SAIF Care, a UK wide bereavement support service
